

What you can do!

Understand that ‘Perception is everything. Wars are often won or lost based on how the actors perceive one another’s strengths and weaknesses, not so much how strong or weak they are in reality.’ <https://thefederalist.com/2015/08/27/10-key-ways-to-break-the-mass-delusion-machine/>*

Get, read and share emails from On Side organizations which expose the propaganda and offer an accurate, better way forward:

VfJUK, Christian Concern, Anglican Mainstream and Christian Institute.

Churchill was said to have won the war by talking about it, so let’s start!

Speak about and pray for these matters with your faith community.

See yourself differently: you are a player, an agent of change, and can do far more than you imagine. For starters, do one new thing because of today.

Follow Christian Concern’s strategy for parents: Write to your MP. Organize a meeting for parents. Write to your Head. Withdraw your child from sex ed. Change schools/home educate/start your own school.

Hold your faith leaders to account. Fuss! Be willing to go through pain barriers to have that difficult conversation. This revolution is happening on their watch, to their own youngsters (not to mention the rest), and yet they are largely silent and stick with ‘safe’ general topics. If they will not speak up, support those who will. Remember, money talks!

Invite speakers from today to address your church/housegroup/network, or show them Family Watch’s excellent ‘War on children’ [right]:

A three-hour seminar from today will be created: bring it to your church. The MSC (Marriage Sex and Culture Group of Anglican Mainstream) meets monthly in London: come visit: msc.support

For more action, join with those already 'out' and pushing back: e.g. our brave Birmingham Muslims [left], Mass Resistance and the SchoolGateCampaign.

Conservative, politically incorrect groups (such as those featured today) are always skint: do you know people who have funds, are deeply worried but find most churches/organizations do little to nothing? Could you be an ambassador?

And finally, excerpts from StopRSE, the most psychologically insightful strategy for parents thus far, and a huge thanks to our Muslim colleagues for creating it! <https://stoprse.com/index.php/takeaction/2433-2/>

--Start with yourself: Reflect on your priorities; educate yourself; manage your anxieties.

--Your family: Create a positive and loving family environment; build a strong relationship with your child; educate your child first.

--Your Faith Community: Build relationships; build a sense of community; form support groups; organize workshops.

--Your School: Build relationships; join the PTA; volunteer; ask to see the resources; offer to make RE/RSE resources.

--Other spheres: The Local, Larger and Global Community.

*'No matter how implausible an idea may seem, it can gain acceptance in the minds of the citizens as the forces of PC relentlessly repeat and hype the notion in the public square. The twin processes of saturation and suppression, if diligently applied, can produce the illusion of a public opinion shift, or a "cascade."' The Federalist

The above quote illustrates why the silent passivity of our leaders is egregious. They are allowing The Opposition to frame the debate and envelop the culture while they 'stay safe' elsewhere. NOT saying is saying that it must not be said. How is that right? DrLisa1957@gmail.com
